*REGISTRATION REQUIRED - FREE - at CGS Website - This event is sponsored by CGS, but it will be held at the Oakland Family Search Library. Come spend the day at the Oakland Family Search Library (10:00 am- 9:00 pm) Our day will begin 11:00 with a brief tour & talk about the library Learn what subscription databases are available. Learn how to contact volunteers with expertise in foreign country research. Learn about the enormous amount of digitized material available only at the Family Search Library. Review the basics of using FamilySearch. org. Come for the Day! Bring your lunch. After our brief tour and talk spend time at the computers with both Familysearch and CGS volunteers who will help you use the subscription databases and the amazing records available.

**Come early to The Oakland Family History Center to do your research, and plan to stay for a seminal Family History presentation by Maureen Hanlon.

Maureen will discuss the many records that should be searched in the US that provide clues to find your Ancestor's Birthplace. Although Maureen will share records used from her Irish families, these records can be used for all Immigrant ancestors!

This class is for all skill levels, beginners to veteran genealogists.
