Brazil “How to” Guide, Beginner Level: Answer Key

November 2015

1. You are looking for your great-grandfather who was born in June (junho) 1929 in Ipira, Santa Catarina, Brazil. Answer the following questions using the FamilySearch Catalog.

What years are available to search for birth records?	1925-1933
What is the film number you will need?	2075723
Is there an item number?	Item 4
Are the records available online?	Yes
Are they indexed?	No
In which image number does item 4 begin?	456
Do the actual books contain indexes? If so, where are they and how are they organized?	Yes, they are among the first images in the set and they are organized by the first name of the child.

1. Go to FamilySearch.org.
2. Hover your mouse over the word Search and click on the word Catalog when it appears.
3. In the Place field enter the name of the town: Ipira, Santa Catarina, Brazil.
4. When Brazil, Santa Catarina, Ipira appears in a green field, click on it.
5. Click on Search.
6. Click on Brazil, Santa Catarina, Ipira - Civil registration (1).
7. Click on Registros civis: Ipira, 1925-1997.
8. Scroll down the page to locate the Film Notes section. There is only one entry for Nascimentos or Births.
9. The film number and the Item number are located in the column FILM/DGS.
10. The Format column has two icons. One is a camera, the other is a roll of microfilm. The camera means the images are online. The microfilm indicates that the records are also available on microfilm.
11. To view the images click on the camera icon located to the right of the film number 2075723 Item 4.

12. Scroll through the miniatures to find where Item 4 begins. It will look like this:

13. Click once on the image to update the image number. It should now look like this.

14. Thumbnail images 456-483 look different than the images that begin with image 484. This could indicate the presence of an index in the record book. Click on image 458 to view the index. The index is organized by the first name of the child followed by two sets of numbers. The first set that begins with what looks like the letter "f" are page numbers. The second number is the certificate or entry number. See the image below:

2. You are looking for the marriage of Augusto José da Silva who married Mathilde Gomes on 31 July 1897 in the city of Rio de Janeiro. The family tradition indicates that the couple lived in the parish of Larangeiras which is located within the 4th Civil Registration district or the Quarta Circunscrição of the city. Hint: You may find multiple entries, choose the one that shows Larangeiras as part of the city of Rio de Janeiro. The entry should look like this: Brazil, Rio de Janeiro, Rio de Janeiro, Larangeiras [Country, State, City, Area within the city]. Using the information supplied please answer the following questions:

Hint: Augusto José are his given names and da Silva is his last name. To answer the last two questions, locate the marriage record by searching by name using the FamilySearch search engine. FamilySearch.org > Search > Records > Enter the names.

What is the film number you will need?	1286184
Is there an item number?	No
Are the records available online?	Yes
Are they indexed?	Yes
What is the name of Augusto's mother?	Fortunata Apolinária Da Silva
In what year was he born?	1874

The following steps outline how to get the answers provided above:

1. Go to FamilySearch.org.
2. Hover your mouse over the word Search and click on the word Catalog when it appears.
3. In the Place field enter the name of the city: Rio de Janeiro, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.
4. When Brazil, Rio de Janeiro, Rio de Janeiro appears in a green field, click on it.
5. Click on Search.
6. Click on Brazil, Rio de Janeiro, Rio de Janeiro - Civil registration (14)
7. Locate the entry that lists the following as the author: Rio de Janeiro (Rio de Janeiro). Registro Civil. Quarta Circunscrição; Estado do Rio de Janeiro
8. Click on Registros civis, 1889-1999.
9. Scroll down the page to locate the Film Notes section. Locate a film that contains marriages or Casamentos for the month and year July or julho 1897. Casamentos 1897 (junho)-1901 (julho). The film number and the Item number are located in the column FILM/DGS.
10. The Format column has three icons, a magnifying glass, a camera and a roll of microfilm. The magnifying glass indicates the film has been indexed. The camera means the images are online. The microfilm indicates that the records are also available on microfilm.

11. Click on the magnifying glass.
12. In the First Names field enter the names Augusto José.
13. In the Last Names field enter the name da Silva.
14. Click on Update. See example below.

Alternate method:

You could determine that the parish of Larangeiras was in the 4th district by doing a Keywords search in the FamilySearch catalog.

1. Go to FamilySearch.org.
2. Hover your mouse over the word Search and click on the word Catalog when it appears.
3. Click on the option Keywords and enter Larangeiras in the Keywords field.
4. Click on Search.
5. The first option is Registros civis, 1889-1999. Click on it and continue with step 9 from the previous instructions.
6. After you click on Update, the first two results should be the marriage you seek. The name of the mother and the birth year of Augusto José will appear in the indexed information. Click on the Details icon to see the indexed information. Click on the camera icon to view the actual record.

Important tip: You should always view the original record as it may contain more information than what was indexed.
