

Date

In the first paragraph the names of the intended couple appear

In the second paragraph explains that the room is suspended from military duties, he served as a brick layer

The groom takes over the parental farm and his mother will go into retirement to which the mother agrees.

Here follow the terms the mother sets for her life in the house of the son and what provisions she desires

T. 14. 1846
Wm. 3
S.R. 19
T. 14. 1846

Notation, February 24th 1846 1839

I, Jacob H. Kipp, husband of Anna Rose Kipp, age 16.
I, therefore, offer my services as a bricklayer, mason, and such other kinds of labor as you shall require.

I am now engaged in the construction of a house on Main Street, from first floor; and shall pay the carpenters and bricklayers for wages according to the time I work, and other expenses, and gratuity of ten dollars per day for living expenses, and shall help build up, and keep the house in a neat and comfortable condition.

I, also, offer my services to you, Mrs. Anna Rose Kipp, as a maid, to clean, wash and keep up the house, and make the bed, and wash the clothes, and do all such work as you may desire, and shall receive for it one dollar per week, and providing there is no household servant, and she has a good place to live.

If you are satisfied with my services, and are willing to give me a home, and pay me wages, I will accept your offer.

Further details of the agreements between mother and son

---

The agreement was read and accepted by the groom, the brother of the bride, the mother of the groom, the annuitant and the local judge

---

III. Mann Bef. den
April

IV. Mann, Robertson, das an einem Tag, den Lundau Buch, Ziffer.

V. Mann, nimmt die gefürchtete Fünfzig
mark.

Als geprüft, welche für zurück zu geben waren der Bräutigam, das ist durch den Bräutigam, den der Bräutigam und der Bekleidung auf die
geprüft sind, das haben nichts mit dem zu tun
die Prüfung.

Der Bräutigam ist der ist der Bräutigam, das die Prüfung.

in fide
Riff